ANNOUNCEMENTS

OPERA PATIENCE.

Patience, Sullivans' aesthetic opera, which is to be given at Davis theatre on Wednesday, the 17th, is fast reaching the finished stage. The production of this opera involves a great deal more work than that of Pinafore, and the cast has done everything possible to make this event a big success.

Bauthorne, the poet, is a study in every way. Mr. Overbaugh's characterization of this part is recognized by those who know the opera and have seen rehearsals as excellent. His song follows:

If you're eager for to shine in the high aesthetic line as a man of culture You must get up all the germs of the transcendental terms, and plant them everywhere; You must lie upon the daisies and discourse in novel phrases of your complicated state of mind; The meaning doesn't matter if it's only

And convince 'em, if you can that the reign of good Queen Anne was Culture's palmiest day.

Of course you will pooh-pooh whatever may be fresh and new, and declare it crude and mean.

For Art stopped short in the cultivated court of the Empress Josephine.

SODALITAS ENTERTAINMENT.

The Sodalitas of Broadway church assisted by the young men, are to give an entertainment in Y. M. C. A. hall tonight. The first part is an old-fash-iqued minstrel show, with appropriate costumes and exceptionally pretty music. The second part will be an orig-inal sketch introducing variety num-

EXPERIENCE

Coming to Davis Theatre Monday and Tuesday, May 15 and 16.

George V. Hobart has turned the X-rays upon the human heart and mind and soul in his morality play Ex-perience which comes to the Davis the-aire for an engagement of two nights, Monday and Tuesday, May 15 and 16. Mr. Hobart has chosen to write in the vernacular of the hour rather than the vernacular of the hour rather than in poetic language, and this makes Experience gain vastly in realism. The critics say the people in Experience are those we meet in everyday life and not mere allegorical figures, although instead of being called by proper names they are called by the names of the various vices and virtues of life. The action of the characters is rapid and lifelike and Mr. Hobart has hewed close to truth in the play. has hewed close to truth in the play, for it is a story of today and tells of the adventures of Youth as he goes out into the world to seek fame and fortune. The engagement in this city will be notable for the fact that the will be notable for the fact that the famous and original New York-Boston organization comes to this city, with its cast of $2 players. This is the company that was for nine months in New York and five months in Boston, and so popular has Experience been that William Elliott, F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest, the producers of the play, had to cancel all engagements outside of New England, and Experience has made now theatrical history. ence has made now theatrical history by remaining in New England one en-tire year, and because of the numerous return engagements has only played a very few of the New England cities, and by public demand returns to Bosand by public demand returns to Boston shortly for another engagement.

In the exceptional cast will be Wanda Carlyle, May McManus, Conrad Nagle, John Todd, Emmett C. King, Maude Allan, Marion Holcombe, Ebba Andrus, Harry Buchanan, Sally McCombs, Marge Keval, Maude Furniss, One day I saw Vinol advertised, and Utimadall Charles made up my mind to try it. I have made up my mind to try it.

Geraldine Farrar in Temptation, and Romance of Norwich Features for

The appearance of Geraldine Farrar in another photoplay production by the Lasky Feature Play company, follow-ing her great success in the screen ver-sion of Carmen, is one of the notable photoplay announcements of the notable photoplay announcements of the sea-son. Miss Farrar's next production is entitled Temptation. Hector Turnbull is the author, and Cecil B. DeMille, who is the author, and Cecil B. DeMille, who directed Carmen, personally supervised and directed Temptation.

Temptation will reveal Geraldine Farrar for one of the few times in her artistic career in a modern role with the present day dramatic theme. The story of the play concerns the trials and hardanips endured by a young American girl to obtain a hearing before grand opera audiences. On this account it will not be easy to entirely disassociate the star and incidents of Temptation from some of the prima donna's own personal appearances in her climb to the top of the operatic profession. A glimpse is had of life back of the scenes in a big opera company.

Temptation will be shown in Paramount theatres. Among those who appear in support of the star are Theo. Roberts, Pedro De Cordoba, Raymond Hatton and Elsie Jane Wilson.

The Romance of Norwich will be shown today and tomorrow and it is still attracting a lot of attention. The Pathe comedy for Friday and Saturday is entitled Board Bill Dodgers and promises to be a very funny reel.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

The feature picture at the Colonial today is The White Alley, Essanay drama in three parts.

Justine Arnold gives a house party at his summer home. Among his guests are Ernest Chapin, Campbell Crosby, his cousin and attorney, and Emery Gale, Crosby's law partner. All three fall in love with Dorothy Duncan, Arnold's flances, and she filtre with them. rosby and Gale return to the city, he following night Arnold discovers hapin asking Dorothy to marry him. rhold tells Derothy to consider their Several days elapse before his body is found in a huge brick oven in the basement. At the inquest evidence is introduced which implicates Dorothy, and she is accussed. Chapin, to shield her, declares he kilied Arnold. He is put in prison. Stone, a detective, is hired by Dorothy. The discovery of a white alley by Stone leads to a confession by Campbell Crosby. On the night Arnold and Ctapin quarreled Crosby had returned from the city and gained entrance to the house from the roof, lowering himself through a crevice which he and Arnold had played in when boys. After stabbing Arnold he had disposed of his body in the brick oven. His object was to gain possession of Arnold's estate, to which he was sole helt. As he finishes his confession he takes poison.

The Gold in the Crock is a Lubin drama in two parts. Two other pictures for today are a Special Deliver.

A WAY THROUGH THE WOODS. They shut the way through the woods They shut the way through the woods
Seventy years ago,
Weather and rain have outdone it again
And now you would never know
There was once a road through the woods,
Before they planted the trees,
It is underneath the coppies
heath,
And the thin anemones,
Only the keoper sees
That, where the ring-dove broods
And the badgers roll at ease,
There was once a road through the

Yet, if you enter the woods

When the night air cools on the troutringed pools
Where the otter whistles his mate.
